PRESIDENT

President's Message

Committee Aims to Protect Real Estate Values

Community Standards is the department in Sun City that works with ARC to ensure all CC&R's and Development Standards are met

David Steinman,
President, SCSCAI
Board of Directors

Why do we need an Architectural Review Committee? Why is it the only committee created by Sun City's CC&R's? All of the other Sun City Summerlin committees were approved by the Board of Directors and their authority granted by the bylaws of our community.

During the founding of our homeowners' association, Del Webb reasoned that control of the exterior of our residences and public buildings was important for the image of Sun City. As such, ARC was placed in charge of enforcing rules regarding all exterior projects. Nearly 30 years later, people still comment on our beautiful structures.

I joined ARC shortly after my move to Sun City in 1999. I have served as the committee's chairman and co-chairman for 12 years. BOD member Ken Caroccia has been chairman of ARC for the past four years. In July, I returned to ARC as its chairman.

One change that will ultimately apply to all homes in Sun City is exterior painting. SCSCAI's Community Standards Office has an extensive, approved list of color combinations that you may use to pick the look for your house. Remember, when you want to change anything on the exterior of your residence, you must get an application from the Community Standards Office at Mountain Shadows. Submitting your request to that office with good backup to support your intended project will lead to a prompt decision by members of ARC within five days. If you are a member of a sub-association, you must have the signature of your sub-association president on the application form before ARC can act on your request.

By enforcing the Development Standards, ARC provides a basis for strong real estate values.

Thank you to all residents who continue to refresh the exterior of your homes. It has resulted in a community where seniors are still seeking home ownership and real estate value is good.

House Checks a Valuable Service to Homeowners

Sun City Summerlin Security Patrol is pleased to provide residents who have a valid SCSCAI membership a service to inspect the exterior of their property while they are vacationing or away from their home for a short period.

Security Patrol volunteers will check the house by walking around the property as much as access allows and will follow up on anything unusual with the emergency contact or resident. House checks will be made every other day for a total period of 30 days. Security Patrol is unable to provide house checks for residents absent from their homes for extended periods of time (ie snowbirds), or for homes that are vacant while they are being marketed for sale, or pending rental occupancy. The service is free, but residents may make a donation to the Patrol if they wish.

Residents requesting this service must:

- ♦ Come into the Security Patrol office in person to make the request and sign the form authorizing the Patrol access to the property.
- ♦ Bring in and show their current SCSCAI membership card (owner or renter).
- ♦ Have current emergency contact information on file. If not, a form must be completed and submitted before a house check request can be accepted. Ideally, the emergency contact should have a key to the house.
- ♦ Ensure that all the doors are locked and all the window latches are closed prior to leaving the home.
- ♦ Stop mail and newspaper deliveries or have a neighbor collect them. Also arrange for parcels to be taken in.

We are excited to announce that the new Highland Falls practice facility is ready to open. The reconstructed practice area features a large putting green, a chipping green with a bunker, a very large grass hitting area with a fairway bunker on the west side and an upgraded mat that stretches across the entire range area, allowing 35-plus hitting stations.

Several new range packages will be available for purchase, beginning October 6. For more information, be sure to ask one of our staff members when you visit any one of the golf shops.

To celebrate the grand re-opening of the Highland Falls practice facility, the Golf Department will host an Oktoberfest tournament on October 29 at Highland Falls. Participants in this event will enjoy bratwurst and a draft beer following play. (For details on how to sign up for the tourney, see the ad on this page.)

Common Area Properties

What's Happening in the Properties Committee?

The next CAP meeting is scheduled for October 11, 9 a.m., at Desert Vista.

Ken Caroccia,
Chairman, Common
Area Properties

Many times I bump into a resident who wonders about what's happening concerning certain changes in the recreational centers or the golf courses. Or, they have questions concerning community property.

As the current chairman of the Common Area Properties Committee, I thought that giving a synopsis of what is presently happening in our meetings would be helpful. Remember, residents are always welcome to attend our meetings. They are open to all Sun City residents.

August 9 meeting notes included:

Kristie McWhorter, SCSCAI fitness manager, reported:

- The treadmills and bikes have come in. The bikes are on a computer-based concept, which some residents found difficult to use. Kristie advised the committee that the problem has been fixed.
- At Mountain Shadows Fitness Center, lobby furniture is on order and the patio furniture at the tennis courts will be replaced. Umbrellas also are on order for the pool area.
- Kristie has added a fitness specialist who will work in the evenings. Her name is Pam Shields and she was featured in the September Link.

Louis Darling, landscape manager, reported:

- Turf reduction at the Pinnacle has begun.
- Overseed and a refresh of the ballfield also was scheduled.
- At Eagle Crest, plants will be removed at the pro shop, and new rock and plant material will be added around the entrance area and patio. At Highland Falls' pro shop, plants were removed and a redesign will take place.
- Louis is now in charge of the landscape at all three pro shops.

Brian Bagwell, golf course maintenance general manager, reported:

- Turf removal for the year will begin after the September overseed at all three golf courses.

- Eagle Crest Golf Course has a new Golf Course Superintendent. His name is Rob Stoffttern. The course is shaping up, and there are plans in place to change the course to all Bermuda grass.

Brandon Balek, building maintenance supervisor, reported:

- A new roof was put on the arts and crafts building at Mountain Shadows.
- A new awning for the softball field stands has been ordered.
- At Sun Shadows, various shade structures are being looked into for the benches at the bocce ball courts.
- LED lights are still on order for all SCSCAI facilities, sporting courts, the two restaurants and parking lots.

Paul Henderson, SCSCAI executive director, reported:

- He and Food and Beverage manager Barbi Meinel, along with the decorating committee, will work to find furniture for The Summit and Tavern at the Falls. He will provide an update at this month's meeting.

Allan Bell, CAP committee member, reported:

- On the Mountain Shadows landscape around the fountain. The landscape committee looked at the area and recommended to leave the grass alone. A new motion was made to recommend to the Board of Directors to retain the grass around the fountain at Mountain Shadows and add two trees to the area. The motion was seconded and passed.

Garage Sale Event Set Over Two Weekends

Whether you enjoy sorting through your collection of stuff and putting it up for sale, or look forward to trekking through open garage doors to discover that unique object, you are in luck. The community garage sale event gets under way Saturday and Sunday, October 8-9 and 15-16. Sales were approved by the Board of Directors as an annual event and are authorized to run from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. on those days only. Any Sun City resident wishing to have a sale may do so during those two weekends. There is no permit required to participate. Be sure to check out the Link's special classifieds ad section on Page 67 to see a list of homes participating in the sales. If you are looking to plan your bargain-hunting route, you may want to consult your community map. The Link's website, www.suncitylink.com, also will feature new garage sale ads as they come in. If you need a map, you may pick one up at the Link office at Mountain Shadows.

Political Signs

With Election Day fast approaching, SCSCAI wants to be sure that residents are aware of how they may display political signs. According to SCSCAI's Development Standards, A unit's owner or an occupant of a unit may exhibit as many political signs as desired, however, only one political sign is permitted per candidate, political party or ballot question. Residents are not allowed to post signs on golf courses, greenbelts or any other common areas.

Do You Know?

How to File a Community Complaint

Do you know how to file a complaint with the Community Standards Office? This office handles all complaints regarding violations of our Sun City Summerlin Development Standards and many of the CC&R's. The procedure is as simple as going to the office (located in the craft/patio area of Mountain Shadows) with your Sun City Summerlin identification card and completing a brief form. Complainants may choose to remain anonymous.

At various committee meetings, Coffee With the Board and the Board of Directors' meetings, residents often voice complaints to those assemblies only to be told they must first file a formal written complaint at the Office of Community Standards.

Frequent complaints reported to Community Standards include: unkept landscapes, neglecting to pick up pet waste, unauthorized garage sales and feeding pigeons, which, by doing so, can attract rodents and coyotes.

Once a complaint has been filed with Community Standards, it is investigated. If deemed necessary, a letter is sent to the owner of the residence stating the problem. With a swift correction of the problem, the procedure ends there. However, full hearing and appeals procedures can follow. This progression is clearly stated in our Sun City governing documents.

Of course, it is always much better if the situation can be resolved among residents themselves. But if that does not bring about a satisfactory solution, filing a complaint is the next step.

(Note: All other complaints, regarding issues not outlined in SCSCA's governing documents, must be made through the office of the executive director.)

Toys for Tots

For the past 22 years, Sun City Summerlin residents and employees have participated in Toys for Tots promoted by the U.S. Marine Corps. Over the years, thousands of toys have been collected that benefit needy children in Las Vegas. If you would like to take part in this year's Toys for Tots drive, you can drop off a new, unwrapped toy now through Friday, December 18, at Mountain Shadows, Desert Vista, Sun Shadows or Pinnacle community centers.

In addition to the drop-off boxes, Sun City will support the toy drive through club events with the Pickleball Club, which will host a fundraising tournament, December 2-4, and the Residents' Forum, which will accept a toy for admission into its holiday party, December 14.

This year, Toys for Tots will get another boost from resident Tom Boyce, who is on the board of the organization's Toys for Tots Golf Classic. Although the tournament will not take place in Sun City in 2016, Tom hopes that Sun City golfers, who are always so generous, will come out to support the fundraiser. The golf tournament will take place at Painted Desert Golf Club (5555 Painted Mirage Road) on Friday, November 4.

Community Preparedness Committee

CPC—Your Neighborhood Watch Dog

Successful Neighborhood Watch groups involve little more than the social aspect of meeting your neighbors and caring about each-others' safety and well-being.

Karl Wiedemann,
Chairman,
IT Committee

Forming a Neighborhood Watch group is a remarkably effective crime-fighting tool that's easy to set up. Typically, the group selects a resident block captain who hosts the initial meeting in the neighborhood. Most Neighborhood Watch groups involve 10 to 25 homes within easy walking distance of everyone. Starting a Neighborhood Watch should involve minimal effort of modest paperwork to gather members' contact information and a few initial meetings to get to know everyone. The concept is one of neighbors helping neighbors by noticing their routine habits.

Typically, meetings are held in the neighborhood and hosted by the appointed block captain. A free room also may be reserved for Neighborhood Watch meetings at Desert Vista Community Center. For information on reserving a room, call 363-3581.

A Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department crime prevention specialist will attend and lead the initial meeting, making sure that all prospective members introduce themselves and tell everyone where they live. The Police crime prevention specialist also will discuss the general purpose of the Neighborhood Watch program, while offering home security and crime prevention tips that have worked for established groups. The material reviews techniques about recognizing suspicious activities and how to report them. After the initial group forms, instructional provisions, including a "Please Join" form, will be given to the block captain for distribution to all neighborhood residents. That information should include why you are starting a Neighborhood Watch.

After that, you'll need to decide how often you want to meet – one suggestion from a seasoned community block captain is "quarterly, or as often as needed to address security problems."

The last thing you'll need to do is prepare a neighbors' contact list, including the address, telephone number/s and email address of everyone in the Neighborhood Watch group. This is how the group will keep in touch with one another. Generally, an effective Neighborhood Watch creates a sense of awareness to help improve neighborhood safety.

To schedule an introductory meeting for your neighborhood, contact Kathy Cassell, LVMPD crime prevention specialist at 828-4305 or k2482c@lvmpd.com; or you can contact Karl Wiedemann, CPC chairman at 256-1944 or kdwiedemann@gmail.com.

How to Train Your Brain When Forgetfulness Occurs

Although age may bring a decline in efficiency in learning new information, many parts of the brain generally remain untouched.

Kristie McWhorter,
MS, CPT, GFI,
Fitness Manager
kristiem@suncitylv.com
fitness@suncitylv.com

Have you forgotten a lunch date with a friend? Can't find your keys or membership card? Forgetting is frustrating, but you don't have to resign yourself to it as a part of old age.

Although age may bring a decline in efficiency in learning new information, many parts of the brain generally remain untouched. These include areas associated with language, meaning, creativity and wisdom. In addition, age has little effect on habit-based (procedural) memory, which stores skills developed by repetition and practice – like riding a bike.

You can capitalize on procedural memory skills to sharpen everyday memory and speed up information processing. This allows you to take advantage of other invaluable skills, such as insight and experience, which can only be acquired over time. Here's how:

Keep a calendar. Every day you are bombarded with information coming from all directions – names, numbers, passwords, to-do lists. Trying to track too many tedious details can actually make you more prone to memory lapses. Instead, create a calendar and organization system to help you keep extraneous information readily available and free up brain space for more important tasks.

Organize the clutter. Keeping your environment clutter-free and relatively organized can help minimize distractions and improve memory. For example, make a habit of always returning your keys and handbag or wallet to a designated place. This makes it simple to find them next time. Putting mail in order can help you stay on top of the endless stream of mail and paper that enters the home.

Focus your attention. Attention is an important part of memory processing. It takes concentration to input information into your brain so that it can be stored and retrieved properly. Slow down and focus on the task at hand.

Cross-train your brain. Just as you might exercise your body to gain physical strength, you can also exercise your brain to increase working memory capacity. Early research suggests that brain-training programs may improve aspects of memory, mental processing speed and ability to perform everyday activities. Brain-training programs can be found online or you can create your own. Engage in mentally stimulating games – such as bridge or chess, doing more complex crafts or reading. Challenge yourself and target a range of skills –working jigsaw puzzles to sharpen spatial relationship skills and playing fast-paced card games, such as speed or slapjack, with your grandchild to increase mental processing speed.

Try new things. Studies show that older adults learn new skills as well as younger adults do. While younger adults may mentally process faster, older adults can apply more wisdom and experience. Stay curious, take a class, explore a new city, try new foods or use technology.

Exercise. Studies show that people who are physically active are less likely to experience a decline in mental function and have a lowered risk of developing Alzheimer's disease.

Charli's Corner

*Smith Machine
for Your Shoulders
The Upright Row*

Charli Sue Douglass
SCSCAI Fitness
Specialist, CPFT, GFI

Did you know that it is important to use different machines, equipment, weight and exercises when strengthening your muscles? When you do the same exercises three times a week for more than two to three months at a time your muscles will adapt and you will no longer see improvements in your strength and conditioning. The Smith Machine offers you an opportunity to challenge your muscles and create more strength for your body in a way your body may not be used to.

When using a new piece of equipment be careful with how much weight you use. Too much weight can lead to bad form, which can cause injury. Always start with no weight or light weight on the bar.

Here is how to do an upright row that will help you as you strengthen your shoulders.

1. Set the bar on the Smith Machine to a height that is at the middle of your thighs. Grasp the bar with an over-hand grip shoulder width apart.
2. Lift the bar up and rotate it off the rack, then extend your arms with a slight bend in your elbow keeping your back straight. This is your starting position.
3. Use your shoulders to lift the bar until your elbows are level with your chest as you exhale.
4. As you bring the bar up, keep your body close to the bar and your elbows will drive the motion by keeping them higher than your forearms.
5. Lower the bar back down slowly to the starting position. Inhale as you perform this portion of the movement.
6. Repeat for 10 to 15 repetitions and two to three sets.

Caution: If you suffer from serious shoulder problems, using dumbbells may be a better option than the Smith Machine, or ask a fitness specialist for an alternative shoulder exercise.

Information Technology

We Need Your E-Mail Address

If you haven't done so, please consider providing it.

Karl Wiedemann,
Chairman,
IT Committee

It's a new world. Electronics are everywhere and we have the ability to communicate instantly. SCSCAI would benefit by having your email. You, in turn, would benefit by being in the know about what's going on in your community. SCSCAI departments include Administration, Security Patrol, the Link, Fitness and others. They will not send you jokes or other objectionable email. If you already have furnished your email address to Administration, fantastic. If you haven't done so, please consider providing it. It will be most beneficial to help keep you up to date with what's going on in Sun City, as well as help with notification in case of an emergency.

The Information Technology Committee's main goal is to make communication in Sun City as seamless as possible. Wi-Fi is already available at Desert Vista and expansion plans are in the near future. Our electronic bulletin boards in the lobby at Mountain Shadows are a big hit and similar displays will be placed in the other community centers soon.

Please help us continue to keep Sun City up to date and informed.

FOOD & BEVERAGE Food & Beverage

Celebrate October With Blues & Beignets

*Chef Barbi
Happy to Share
Authentic Southern Fare*

Barbi Meinel,
Food & Beverage
manager

After culinary school I did my internship at Disney World in Orlando. While I was there, I had the opportunity to enjoy Southern and Cajun cuisine. I also learned how to cook the delicious food, but not from the expected chefs I worked under; rather from far more experienced and surprising sources.

Every Sunday we would have a staff meal together and our chief steward, Miss Lalee, would make a big pot of gumbo and bring it to our break room where everyone, including college interns and cast members would share a home-cooked meal. Sunday was Miss Lalee's day off and after church we just happened to be her first stop as she continued on her way to deliver her delicious concoction to other recipients, including families in need or just someone who needed some cheering up. She called the gumbo her "bowl of joy." Miss Lalee is no longer with us, but her joyful spirit lives on in her gumbo recipe that I would love to share with you.

Another recipe I'd like to introduce to our Sun City community is the beignet recipe I would make with my five roommates while I lived in Orlando. One of my roommates was from Louisiana and was desperately homesick. So, to help cheer her up we called her grandmother to ask for her beignet recipe. The next evening, during movie night, we surprised Wendy with her granny's beignets. It sure did the trick and soon beignets and movie night became a weekly tradition. I still make them today when I'm in the mood for a classic movie – sticky sugar-covered fingers and girl talk, what a great combination!

The October event will continue with live blues by the Boogeman Band. Dancing to the music will be a great way to work off all that sugar. Come enjoy Miss Lalee's gumbo, fresh-baked rolls and Granny's beignets with chocolate ganache or crème anglaise. Soft drinks and coffee are included. There will be $3 bourbon drinks along with the full bar menu. Alcoholic beverages are not included in the admission price. Tickets are available at The Summit snack bar. Seating is limited.

MISTINGUETT PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

"THE BRUCE HARPER BIG BAND, STARRING ELISA FIORILLO"

Saturday, November 19, 7 p.m. · $20

After sold-out performances at the Smith Center this summer, The Bruce Harper Big Band and pop, jazz and swing stylings of singing star Elisa Fiorillo are coming to the Starbright Theatre. Acknowledged as one of the most prominent performing big bands in Las Vegas, Bruce has been no stranger to the Strip and main showrooms. He has backed stars like Chuck Berry, Joan Rivers and Don Rickles, and he has toured for 10 years with Sin City Suits and 10th Ave Jazz Band. This 19-piece band of live heaven is not afraid to strike it up with songs like "Fascinating Rhythm," "Cheek to Cheek" and "Too Close for Comfort." The jewel of this show is the 1985 winner of Star Search, Elisa Fiorillo. Fiorillo became a member of Prince's band, The New Power Generation (NPG), and in 2010 embarked on a world tour with him, playing in sold out shows across Europe. She continued to work with Prince until his death in 2016. Elisa now records and performs all the music that she loves. Singing and swinging is the show, and it doesn't get any better than this.

"MOTOWN LEGACY"

Sunday, November 27, 3 p.m. · $20

Enjoy the most amazing tributes to Motown Records to ever take the stage since the original acts. Performing the music of the Four Tops, The Temptations, Smokey Robinson, Jackie Wilson, James Brown, Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder, this group will take you back to a time when the music moved the world.

CLUB SPOTLIGHT: JUST SEW

*By Linda Habel,
Just Sew President*

The Just Sew Club was chartered in 1993. It is made up of men and women who share their enjoyment of sewing with others. Our driving focus is projects that we support in the community. They include pillowcases for the Salvation Army's women's shelter, pajamas for Peggy's Attic foster children; layettes for University Medical Center (UMC's) Family to Family program for the indigent and homeless; and fleece caps and lap quilts for Comprehensive Cancer Center chemotherapy patients. One of our favorite projects this year has been making 160 different-sized bibs for a special needs public school in Clark County.

To get the materials for the above projects we participate in and hold our own craft sales. Come to the community craft fair on Saturday, October 1, at Desert Vista to see our offerings. Our Club also will be featured this month in the display cases located in the lobby at Mountain Shadows. All of the items you will see have been hand-crafted by members.

Our club also has permanent display windows outside of our studio at Mountain Shadows, where you'll find travel accessories, kitchen items, place mats, table runners and children's items, with American Girl doll clothes and accessories being very popular. All items are for sale and are sold out of our studio.

The first and third Thursdays of the month are set for the making of craft items; the second and fourth Thursdays are primarily focused on the Club's charity projects. If you're curious about what we do, stop by, we'd love to meet you. Members are busy crafting and socializing from 9 a.m. to at least noon.

Our business meetings are held monthly on the first Wednesday of the month at Desert Vista between September and June. Dues are $20 per year. For questions, call Linda Habel, 228-6898.

Top, Just Sew President Linda Habel and club member Jackie Osborn work on projects during Charity Thursday. Don't forget the Fall Arts & Crafts Fair, October 1, at Desert Vista when members will present many items for sale.

(The deadline for November 2016 chartered club articles is Friday, September 30. If you have any questions, call Jeannette Carrillo, 966-1436, or email jeannettec@suncitylv.com.)

CLUB SPOTLIGHT: MEN'S CLUB CONTINUES TO GROW

It all started in 2012 with a group of Sun City Summerlin men who met each other after they moved to the community. Looking to form new, meaningful friendships and have fun at the same time, they began getting together as frequently as they could. They included their significant others for many of their events and soon a community of men was formed.

In 2014, this group of men worked hard and successfully petitioned the Board of Directors to become an official club in Sun City. At that time, the group had grown to about 50 men. The Men's Club began to offer a variety of activities and added new events each month. Currently, the club offers 10 to 12 events a month, including a membership breakfast meeting with an interesting program, poker games, coed happy hours, hikes with lunch, a discussion breakfast at a nearby restaurant, informal lunches and much more.

Generally, a special event is held each month. These trips take members on tours of places like the Clark County Coroner's Office, Shari's brothel in Pahrump, the Neon Museum, golf outings and even an overnight event at the Mount Charleston Resort with entertainment and nature activities. No matter the time of year, the Men's Club seems to always be doing something interesting while managing to develop great friendships at the same time.

Growth is constant and remarkable within the club. To celebrate reaching 150 members, the club threw a party to celebrate. The event was held at Desert Vista and was very well attended. Fun photos, raffles, and great food, along with a surprise guest were part of the festivities. Men's Club member Roger Storkamp, co-author of the new book "Showgirl Memoir," presented the real-life Las Vegas showgirl Mikel Peterson, who performed a wonderful show. Mikel showed off her dancing talents and an intriguing transformation to Liza Minelli complete with the entertainer's iconic song.

Congratulations to the Men's Club on this milestone in its development. For information on the Club, contact President Alan G. Spector at 847-558-5423 or ags717@gmail.com.
